Meet Laurie Bucher & Ross Bucher Rancho Palos Verdes, California

www.lauriebucher.com

Laurie Bucher is an artist who grew up on the Palos Verdes Peninsula. After college, Laurie explored the country, living in such locations as the Washington DC area, New York, Monterey, and Silicon Valley. She and her husband returned to the Peninsula in 2001 to raise their two children, Rebecca and Ross. Ross and Laurie enjoy collaborating on creative endeavors.

Laurie loves to sew and she is focused on spreading her passion for the fiber arts. She enjoys working with people to inspire them to apply the creative process and express themselves artistically. Laurie graduated from University of California, Los Angeles with a Bachelor of Arts in Design and is a resident of Rancho Palos Verdes.

Ross Bucher is a Los Angeles based painter. He currently runs the art TikTok account @rosspaints.

Artist Statement

The best way to understand who the artists are is to watch the artists create. This video presents the collaboration between a quilter and her son, a painter. Neither artist is shown as the quilt comes to life through the eyes of the artists.
