Artwork on Display

LOOKING IN 6

Paulette Landers has been making textile artwork since 2002. She refers to her most recent collection as Mixed Media Textile Collage. Most of her work is in a non-objective and abstract style.

She has won numerous awards, including First Place at the International Quilt Festival, Houston. She has exhibited in the major juried art quilt shows throughout the United States. Her work has been shown in the international exhibits at the Visions Art Museum, in San Diego, CA, the Carnegie Center, in New Albany, IN where she has won Awards of Excellence. Her work has appeared in Art Quilting Magazine, Quilters Newsletter Magazine, IQA Quilt Scene, SAQA Journal.

Paulette was born in Montreal, Canada.

She graduated from California State University, Fullerton with emphasis in Fiber Arts.

She enjoys working in the solitude of her studios, both on the coast of Oregon, and in northern Oregon.

Artist Statement

In my most recent series, I explore the circular shape and the possibilities for looking in, looking through, stepping in, or viewing through a window. The shapes are bold but simple. They are magnified doodles which impose themselves without reservation.

My goal in creating this textile collage is to bring the viewer into the picture, to dwarf the viewer – like Alice down the Rabbit Hole.

I favor a limited palette of colors achieved with my hand dyed and painted fabric.
